ANNUAL FIREMEN'S BALL THIS SATURDAY AT JEFF AUDITORIUM

Crowds of Daly Cityans and their friends will flock to the Jefferson High School auditorium Saturday night, May 22, for the annual Firemen's Ball, sponsored for the benefit of the local fire department's Widows and Orphans Fund.

Always a prominent social event in Daly City, the 1948 ball promises to be one of the best attended affairs in recent years. Phil Bovero's 10-piece KNBC orchestra will provide music for dancing from eight o'clock 'til midnight, and a talented cast of local entertainers will feature the floor show.

Proceeds from the annual ball replenish the yearly budget of the fire department's worthwhile Widows and Orphans Fund, which is maintained for insurance purposes and has proved beneficial to deceased firemen's families in numerous cases.

Door prizes of value will be awarded to a number of dancers.

Elmer Kennedy, Daly City fire chief and general chairman of the dance, will be accompanied in the receiving line by Arthur J. Bodien, J. Fields, L. Shaw, D. Cafferata, R. Ennis, E. Martini and A. Chesney.

RECOUNT HEARING SET FOR JUNE 10

Superior Judge Aylett R. Cotton this week set June 10 as the date for hearing contest proceedings on the April 13 Daly City council election, in response to a request filed last Wednesday by Edward J. Dennis, defeated candidate.

In his request for recount of the ballots, Dennis contests the right of Fred Bertetta to a seat on the recently installed council. He charges that in every one of the city's 13 precincts, election judges, inspectors and clerks made errors "sufficient to change the result of the election."

Dennis, an incumbent, lost to Bertetta by a 23-vote margin, coming in 50 votes behind Edward J. Mooney, another political newcomer. In his petition for recount, he lists specific charges of "malconduct" on the part of election officials.

FIRE DESTROYS COLMA STABLES EARLY WEDNESDAY

A fire which gutted the riding stables at 91st avenue and Sullivan street in Colma in the early hours of Wednesday morning resulted in damage estimated at $20,000 by the owner, Louis Buchel of San Francisco.

Daly City Fire Department Companies 1, 2 and 6 rushed to the scene of the fire when summoned by a telephone call, to aid the Colma fire truck in extinguishing the flames. A number of small buildings on the premises were razed, and approximately eight tons of hay were destroyed by the blaze.

Fire Chiefs Elmer Kennedy of Daly City and Louis Nanini of Colma, who supervised the department's work, said the five horses stabled on the premises were led to safety, although one sustained cuts and burns on his hind quarters.

Fire sirens roused nearby Colma residents from their sleep at 2:35 a. m.

"BRAZILIANA" READIES FOR SHOWING NEXT WEEK AT HIGH SCHOOL

Containing almost everything except Father Neptune himself, "Braziliana," Jefferson's 1948 edition of water magic, is swinging into the final week of preparation for the six colorful performances on May 26, 27 and 28. The starting times will be 7:30 and 9:30 p. m. Tickets are on sale at Jefferson High School.

Undoubtedly the biggest thing in water ever seen in these parts, next to the Pacific Ocean, "Braziliana" is becoming one of the most eagerly awaited events in everybody's date book. Baby sitters are being besieged by calls to duty on the three nights. There is something about a water carnival that holds universal appeal to everyone, regardless of age. Somehow, theatrics has always been a natural by-product of water. (Or don't you sing in the bathtub?)

Thus, by combining water, beautiful costumes, and rhythmic, exciting Latin American melodies, Roy DeVincenzi, the director, has created an extravaganza calculated to delight and charm you.

Three score and ten of the loveliest Jefferson High School girls have worked long and untiringly in rehearsals. And believe us, when you see the finished stage product, with its apparently effortless precision, remember the work going into the creation of this smooth perfection. These girls will deserve all your applause come May 26, 27 and 28. They worked hard for it, with no pay, except perhaps the greatest pay of all; the appreciation and delight of a receptive audience.

Others deserving a measure of your commendation are the behind-the-scenes workers: Mrs. James Diederichson, Mrs. Elaine Parkhurst, Miss Anita Lehigh and Miss Juanita Young, who have given unstintingly of their time and patience in the able coaching of the girls. And, of course, over it all, Roy DeVincenzi has proved an able, imaginative director who shall go far in this, his chosen profession.

So next week, when you are having the time of your lives witnessing one of the most brilliantly conceived and executed high school productions ever seen on the Peninsula, remember all that was done for your entertainment.

The competition for tickets, priced at a dollar, is becoming terrific. If at this late date you haven't purchased your tickets for "Braziliana," don't make it one of those "I'll have to do it tomorrow" affairs.

Elementary, High School, J. C. Board Elections Friday

Voters in the Jefferson High School and Elementary School districts will go to the polls Friday, May 21, to elect their choices for representatives on the two boards of trustees.

Largest draft of candidates is seen in the high school board election, where five persons are vieing for two available posts. E. A. Weisenberger and Mrs. Pearl Jones, incumbent trustees, are running for re-election. Other candidates are Julius F. Castelan, Democratic Central Committee head; Joseph S. Millett jr., local building contractor, and Thomas J. Callan sr., Colma real estate broker.

Andrew Van der Werff, incumbent elementary school board member, is opposed in his candidacy for re-election by D. C. Gensel, local salesman.

Also up for election are three candidates for the San Mateo Junior College board of trustees: J. Howard Walzer, Murray Draper and Charles N. Kirkbride, incumbent, all of San Mateo.

Polls for the elementary school board election will be open Friday from 7 a.m. - 7 p.m. at Crocker School, Woodrow Wilson School and Jefferson School (Colma).

High school and junior college boards will be elected between 3 and 7 p.m. at Rockaway Beach School; between 2 and 7 p.m. at Sharp Park School; between 1 and 7 p.m. at Bayshore and Brisbane Schools, and between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. at Woodrow Wilson School, Jefferson Elementary School, and Crocker School.

Truck Driver Freed Pending Further Fact-Finding

Lewis Cox, 24, Rockaway Beach, held for investigation after the death of 18-month-old Lorenzo Barcellone from injuries sustained in a two-truck accident on Highway 1 last Thursday, was released this week pending further investigation of the case.

Deputy District Attorney Fred Wyckoff said Cox was released because of insufficient evidence to hold him on a manslaughter charge. Full details of the accident were unobtainable, Wyckoff said, because Ferinando and Rose Barcellone, also seriously injured in the accident, were unable to give their account of it.

Cox, who was engaged in hauling fill for one of the new subdivisions west of the city, told police he had turned off Junipero Serra boulevard and was driving west on Highway 1 when the trucks collided.

Funeral services for the baby were conducted by the Dutra Funeral Home in Half Moon Bay.

San Bruno Group To Sponsor Rally For Candidates

Daly City voters have been invited to join thousands of their fellow north county colleagues May 24 at a candidates' rally in the Northbrae School auditorium.

The rally, sponsored by the San Bruno Voters and Taxpayers Association, is scheduled for 8 p. m. The meeting will provide an opportunity for all citizens from the north county to hear and meet the men who are running for national, state and county offices.

Those candidates who already have signified they intend to speak are:

"MUST BE STRONG" SAYS JACK ANDERSON AT LIONS CLUB DINNER

Temporary reinstatement of the Selective Service Act, and some provision for Universal Military Training were termed "musts" by Congressman Jack Z. Anderson, speaking last night at a Lions club dinner in Estrada's Spanish kitchen.

The congressman, noting the position of the United States as a leader in the current "great world crisis," declared that the United States must maintain a strong minimum force "until such time as the United Nations Organization becomes an effective medium for settling world controversies."

Anderson was introduced by Mayor Anthony Gaggero. County and city officials were numbered among some 150 in attendance at the dinner — one of the Daly City-Colma Lions club's infrequent evening affairs. Assemblyman Richard Dolwig was another among the distinguished guests. Official business of the club was dispensed with by President Stanford Hannah.

Failure of the UN to function in its intended capacity Anderson blamed on the Soviet Union's "inconsiderate use of the veto." The United States, he said, has gone for enough on a policy of appeasement. "We must now speak strongly and not too softly, and 'keep our powder dry'."

The country's air and sea forces, Anderson declared, can maintain their strength through volunteer enlistment. But the ground forces must be augmented to a minimum of 550,000 men, "and this can only be done through conscription."

Congressman Anderson's address was mainly concerned with defense measures and a need for preparedness in case of another armed conflict. He dwelt briefly, however, on the accomplishments of the 80th congress, and on California's position in United States affairs.

Regarding the recent West Coast water and power emergency, Anderson said he would fight any attempt by the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation to "socialize California's natural resources, which should rightfully remain in the hands of private enterprises."

Arrangements for the dinner were made by Joseph Sarto.

King of the Jungle Invades Daly City!!! Or Did He?????

Any rational reader will agree that six o'clock in the morning is a baaaad time to confront a mountain lion.

That's what a Daly City man thought last Sunday morning when he spied such a creature roaming about Gambetta street.

Reporting his experience to keepers of the local bastille, the gentleman vowed he saw the four-legged beast cross the road and enter a chicken house way down at the end of Gambetta street.

He was four feet and six inches long, "from the tip of his nose to the end of his tail," and a stealthier feline you never saw.

The measurements, of course, were not exact. Our gentleman reasoned that at six o'clock in the morning his jungle friend might not have had his breakfast.

Dismisses Charges In Cadwell Shooting

Mrs. Marjorie Ruth Cadwell, 26-year-old Colma housewife, this week was free of assault charges in connection with the shooting of her husband after a family quarrel April 13.

The charge was dismissed by Superior Judge Aylett R. Cotton on the request of Chief Criminal Deputy District Attorney John K. Weeks, who said Cadwell had declined to prosecute.

Meanwhile, Cadwell told Weeks he wanted to leave the state, and Mrs. Cadwell was going ahead with proceedings for annulment of her marriage to the 45-year-old construction foreman.

In her annulment complaint, Mrs. Cadwell alleges she married Cadwell after the death of her first husband. Cadwell had been married four times previously. Cadwell took the $6,000 of insurance money she had received on her husband's death, she said, and deposited it in a joint bank account. Most of it was spent on himself, she charges.

Weeks, applying for dismissal of the charge against Mrs. Cadwell, told Judge Cotton there were circumstances involved "which might influence the jury to consider that she was justified in shooting her husband."

Girl Rescued By Police; Attacker Held For Assault

William Montoya, 27, of 33 Tallwood drive, Daly City, is being held in lieu of $2500 cash or $5000 bond in the county jail this week on a charge of assault with intent to rape.

Montoya is charged with attacking a 22-year-old San Bruno girl May 12 near 6601 Mission street.

August Benassini, patrolman, in response to a telephone call from an attendant at Lombardi's Service Station, who heard her screams, found Montoya and the girl struggling on the ground behind some parked cars at the above address. "You saved my life," she told Benassini.

Attendants at Junipero Serra Hospital, who examined the girl, said she had sustained large bruises on her left leg and chest.

Sailor Beaten, Robbed In Colma

Leland Gray, USN, of Bowling Green, Kentucky, told police last week he had been beaten and robbed by two men who threw him from their car near Holy Cross cemetery in Colma.

The sailor, brought to the Daly City police station by an unidentified man who said he witnessed the robbery, said the two men picked him up in San Francisco in their Ford sedan. When they reached the cemetery vicinity, the sailor stated, the men threw him from the car, beat him, and stole $223 and his suitcase and personal papers.

The navy man could give no description of his assailants except that they both wore dungarees.

Colma Election Re-Scheduled For July 20: Governor

Colma city election, postponed April 13 because of temporary misplacement of 150 ballots, has been re-scheduled for July 20, E. A. Weisenburger, city clerk, announced today.

New date for the election was received yesterday from the governor's office in Sacramento, Weisenburger said.

Five applicants for the $230-$260 job of service man in the city's street department also will be examined on Saturday. Service man examinations will be given at 9:30 p. m. at the high school.

D. C. Baseball Club Scores 12-8 Win Over Chelini Team

The Daly City Baseball Club, with Fred Lucia on the mound, played a victorious 12-8 contest against Chelini's Dugout last Sunday in an independent game on Marchbanks field.

Fred allowed only six scattered hits 'til the ninth inning, when the Dugouts came back to score six runs in the last of the game.

Neil Pezzola hit a home run with two men on in the first inning. A triple was hit by Sam Lucia, who took Harry Krohn's place as catcher while Krohn nursed a sprained ankle.

Bad Check Artist Pleads Guilty To Five Counts

Thomas J. Nutting, 21, of San Francisco, pleaded guilty to five counts of bad check passing Monday in San Francisco Superior Court.

The youthful check-passer was charged with buying a number of automobiles in various parts of the state — one in Daly City — giving bad checks in payment. The Daly City violation was perpetrated in June, 1946. H. E. Palmer, of 149 Gambetta street, was the owner.

Superior Judge Albert C. Wollenburg set June 22 as the date for sentencing.

Pershing P. T. A. Drafts Budget

The new year's budget for General Pershing Parent Teacher Association was drafted last week at a special meeting of P.T.A. executives at the home of Mrs. Marie Poole, budget and finance chairman.

Others present were Mesdames Dolly Gensel, Marge Calvin, Frances Nenstiel and Thelma Holcomb.

The regularly scheduled executive board meeting is slated for 1:30 p.m. next Thursday at Mrs. Gensel's home.

Man Seriously Injured In Fall From Scaffolding

August Longo, 1753 Fulton street, San Francisco, was in serious condition at Junipero Serra Hospital this week after he fell from a scaffolding last Friday while working on a construction job at Garden Gateway and Junipero Serra boulevard.

Longo, an employe of the Sterling Building company, was rushed to the hospital by the county ambulance after falling approximately 12 feet from a scaffolding at the site of a new super market under construction.

Hospital attendants said the workman had sustained fractures of the pelvis and wrist.

SATURDAY DEADLINE FOR SIGNUPS IN D. C. CONCERTS ASSOCIATION

Daly City, heretofore a fledgling town only 1.7 square miles in area, is blossoming into a full-grown city; its boundaries expanding farther westward until finally it must reach the coast.

And commensurate with this territorial expansion soon to come, the town is spreading its wings—developing a broader aspect of community life and taking its place, in a larger sense than territorially, among the foremost cities on the Peninsula.

One of the undeniable assets in the town's growth is the recent founding of the Daly City Community Concerts Association. It is not an original, untried organization springing out of the ingenuity of the townspeople, but nevertheless is an unmistakable sign that Daly City, while forging ahead with great plans for expansion, is not forgetting the cultural developments which mark a city as something more than an overgrown hick town.

Support of the city's new-found membership in an international concert-sponsoring organization is unanimous among local educational leaders, civic workers and city officials. Indeed, the association's board of directors and executive committee are peopled by many of these and other leading citizens. The concert-sponsoring movement has been duly recognized as a large step in the direction of progressive development; as an identifying mark in the growth of moral calibre to match a growing boundary.

This week, in the various sections of Daly City, Colma, Broadmoor and Garden Village, field workers of the association are soliciting memberships. The campaign will end Saturday, May 22, at which time a total of 840 membership cards are expected to be distributed. Contemplating a 100 per cent signup, the association will have a budget of some $4,000 to spend on the presentation of a concert series this fall.

Membership dues total $6 for each adult and $3.50 per student, including federal entertainment tax. A member of the association who signs up in 1948 is not necessarily included in the following year's roll, but is given preference in the purchase of a 1948 membership card.

Nothing has yet been found to compare with the privileges accorded a member of the concerts association. A card-holder has not only a season ticket to the concert series in his own city, but is entitled to attend, free of any charge whatever, any concert sponsored by an affiliate of Columbia Community Concerts, Inc., in any town. Neither is this privilege an empty promise, for California alone boasts 92 such organizations. Affiliates of Columbia Concerts are found in such nearby communities as San Bruno, Redwood City, San Carlos, and the tri-city group, Burlingame, Hillsborough and San Mateo, as well as 10 cities in the East Bay Area.

Daly City's concert series will be presented this fall in the auditorium of Jefferson High School. Number of concerts to be included depends, of course, on the budget. And while a minimum of three concerts is guaranteed, the executive committee expects that four or five concerts may be possible. The series will be varied, according to the stated desires of the membership. Available artists now are pictured in the window of the association's headquarters at Sprouse-Reitz on Mission street.

Deadline for membership signups has been set at 3 p.m. this Saturday, at which time returns will be tabulated and the budget drafted. Booths for members' registration also have been set up at the Daly City and Colma branches of Bank of America and in the Record Rack on Mission street.

Veteran Poppies Go On Sale Here Friday, Saturday

Friday and Saturday will be Poppy Days in Daly City and throughout the nation.

From early morning until nightfall, volunteer workers of the American Legion Auxiliary will be on the streets offering memorial poppies to be worn in honor of the dead of the two world wars.

In exchange for the flowers they will receive contributions for rehabilitation work among the disabled war veterans and for child welfare work among children of veterans.

The poppies, which are crepe paper replicas of the wild poppies that grew on the Euroean battlefields of the two wars, have been made by disabled veterans working in hospitals and convalescent workrooms throughout the country.

Poppy Days activities here will be directed by Mrs. Vivian Pahlka, Poppy Chairman of Daly City Unit No. 410 of the American Legion Auxiliary. A large corps of volunteer workers has been organized to distribute the poppies in downtown and neighborhood centers. The poppies to be distributed here have been made by veterans at Palo Alto Facility.

"Much depends upon the success of Poppy Day," said Mrs. Pahlka. "On the public response to our Poppy Day appeal depends the Auxiliary's ability to carry forward its work for the disabled war veterans and for the child-ren from whom war has taken ato our rehabilitation and child father's support. We would notwelfare work," she emphasized. like to go to them with empty hands. Poppy Day contributions give us the means to serve them with more than words of cheer.

"But the poppy is more than a badge for those who contribute for America."

"It is a symbol of individual tribute to the war dead—a sign that the wearer holds in his heart a place of honor for those who died

Supervisors Ask Department Heads To Cut Budgets

A reduction of five per cent in budget requests for the fiscal year 1948-49 met with mixed reactions among county department heads and civic leaders this week.

The cut would trim the $8 million budget by approximately $500,000. Principal exponents of the budget slash are Alvin S. Hatch, chairman of the board of supervisors, and Supervisor Henry W. Edmonds, who explained the economy move as an attempt to keep county taxes down.

Department heads, who were asked individually to cut their own budget estimates, replied they were willing to try, but appeared doubtful that reductions would be conducive to maintaining their standards of production. Main expense in most of the county departments is salary.

Meanwhile, the San Mateo County Civic League threw its support behind the supervisors' request, lauding Hatch and Edmonds for their economy move. Albert A. Keystone, president of the league, said he was firmly convinced that public opinion favored the supervisors' attempt to cut county government costs.

VFW Buddy Poppy Sale Starts Here Tomorrow

Tomorrow and Saturday, May 21 and 22, members of Daly City's Old Glory post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and its auxiliary will observe the organization's Buddy Poppy Day.

Commander William Sweeney jr. and Auxiliary President Lorraine Schneider announced this week that the combined groups have purchased 3000 poppies to be sold during the period starting May 21 and ending on Memorial Day, May 31.

The V.F.W. Buddy Poppy, registered with the U.S. Patent Office, is easily identifiable by the green paper tag attached to its stem. Each tag bears the inscription, "made by disabled and needy Veterans of Foreign Wars." Each authorized poppy seller carries an official identification card issued by the V.F.W.

Five and one-half cents of each poppy sold applies to maintenance of the V.F.W. rehabilitation service, through the V.F.W. National Home for widows and orphans of veterans, and for payment for material used and labor of veterans who made the flowers. All receipts above the cost of the poppies are retained in the community for local distribution in veteran welfare activities only.

Visit In Canada

Here is an entirely new closeup view of the pojected new Tuberculosis Hospital for San Mateo county, the subject of a $1,500,000 bond issue election on June 1. The newly formed Citizens' Committee for the Tuberculosis Hospital has endorsed the site near the present Community hospital because of construction and operative economy possible for this site. Such economies will cover the cost of the hospital over a 20-year period, the committee declares.

WAR TALK SUBSIDES

Washington is a city of rapidly changing moods. A few weeks ago it was knee deep in war hysteria. Today the talk of war has virtually vanished.

Of course, the extensive military preparations which grew out of the recent war fever are not being sidetracked. We have learned that the only course to follow is to be ready for any eventuality even though it is now clear that a shooting conflict with the Russians is very remote. The recent 'peace' gesture from the Kremlin has not altered the Administration's attitude toward the Soviets.

The change in the overall mood in Washington in the last few weeks, however, can be traced to a number of factors. The democratic victory in the Italian election stopped the march of communism westward, temporarily, at least. That took a big worry off the minds of Government officials. The situation in Berlin has quieted and the Russians do not seem willing to risk further trouble to get us out.

Some observers now feel that President Truman greatly exaggerated the situation last March, but others contend that if we hadn't acted tough and started our expanded military program we would have been in for more serious trouble with the Russians.

At any rate, we have clearly shown that we are not going to be bluffed or pushed around and that we will back up strong words with strong military forces. That's one language the Kremlin understands.

TRY AND DO IT

A New Hampshire traffic law reads as follows: "When two motor vehicles meet at an intersection, each shall come to a full stop, and neither shall proceed until the other has gone."

Good trick, if it can be done.

SUCCESSFUL MARRIAGE

There are few things in life more desired—and, too often, more elusive — than successful marriage. Countless books have been written on the subject, countless discussions have dealt with it. Yet, marriage continues to be notably unsuccessful in numerous cases — including many that never reach the divorse courts.

There is no pat formula for marital success, but somebody once said that any partnership based upon, or including, the following factors was virtually certain to be a happy one. Those factors are common interests, common courtesy, common honesty and common sense.

Each is important. Common interests draw a couple closer together; common courtesy lessens friction; common honesty inspires confidence; and common sense saves many a difficult situation.

Common sense is probably the most important of all. The person who uses it before getting married will seek a mate whose interests are reasonably similar to his own, or at least, not in sharp conflict with them. The exercise of it after marriage prompts one to be courteous and honest in marital relations.

Certain it is that if these "common" things were more widely practiced, broken homes would be more uncommon.

FISCAL FUTURE

Reports from Washington say that financial experts are beginning to take a dim view on the Federal budget for the years immediately ahead. The continuing high cost of operating the Government, the aid-to-Europe program and the new military preparedness plan, together with the recent cut in income taxes have combined to give the fiscal outlook a decidedly reddish tinge. If Congress grants additional wage increases to Federal employees and larger benefits to veterans, both of which are not unlikely, the financial problem will be further complicated. Republican leaders in Congress are especially worried about the situation because it appears that the next President, whom they expect will be a member of their party, will have a deficit in his first year. That's the last thing they want to see happen. Prospects are, however, that the 1949-50 budget will be several billions higher than the current $40 billion outlay. Do you remember when we gasped at the thought of a $7 billion budget?

CAN IT BE?

Baseball fans are rubbing their eyes and wondering if they're seeing things. What they're seeing, as this is written, is the Philadelphia Athletics topping the American League. The "A"s are more accustomed to the lower altitude close to the bottom of the heap. Maybe they will find their way down there in a few weeks. But then again, they might go on to a startling upset by winning the pennant. Connie Mack, their 85-year-old leader, couldn't ask for anything sweeter.

Citizens' Group Urges 'Yes' Vote On Props. 1 and 3

The campaign for "Yes" votes on county propositions one and three at the forthcoming June 1 primary election went into high gear this week as all members of the gigantic committee, including every resident of the county, were forcibly reminded that a two-thirds majority vote will be required to put the tuberculosis hospital measures across.

Dr. Harry C. Warren, chairman of the Citizens' Committee, declared:

"It is encouraging that reports from all sections of the county show that 'only apathy' can defeat the determination of conscientious citizens backing the hospital plan." The two-thirds vote requirement, he said, "makes it doubly important that those who realize the need of the tuberculosis hospital take every possible action to assure passage of the two propositions."

Stressing the "It Might Be You" slogan, committee chiefs reiterated the fact that the projected hospital is not for indigents alone, but will serve all families of normal income if they are so unfortunate as to have some member of the family group contract tuberculosis.

They point out that administrative and operational economies in the plan to locate the hospital at the site of the present community hospital will permit the use of facilities jointly by both institutions and will account for huge savings, probably sufficient to equal construction costs, over the 20-year bonding period.

For this reason, it was stated, it is equally important that "Yes" votes be cast on both propositions No. 1 and No. 2.

Richard Dolwig Termed Economist By Winfield Scott

"Our assemblyman has proven himself," stated Winfield Scott, secretary and manager of the Public Economy Council of San Mateo County, as he praised Assemblyman Richard J. Dolwig's stand on economy in state government during the last legislative session.

Scott, the watchdog of San Mateo county budgets over the past twelve years, went on to say, "Assemblyman Dolwig is deserving of support from every resident in the county. He has demonstrated a widespread knowledge of the functions of government as to its responsibility to the people.

"Assemblyman Dolwig's questioning of the state expenditures can best be likened to that of a thrifty housewife examining today's market prices," Scott said. "He asked questions, he studied budgets, to make sure the money he voted upon would be well spent. Such searching into expenditures insures a better government service for all the people."

Scott, a former member of the State Forestry Board and early leader in the fight to save Butano, stated further, "The revival of the fight to save Butano forest as a state recreation area can be attributed to the hard work done by Assemblyman Dolwig during his first term in Sacramento. He is responsible for providing interest that has brought about a revival of the movement to save the forest from cutting. His action in reviving this 'lost cause' demonstrates outstanding organizational ability."

Thomas L. Hickey Emphasizes Social Work In County

The enthusiastic county-wide response given the campaign of Supervisor Thomas L. (Tom) Hickey, of the First Township, in his bid for reelection, is giving new stimulus to the incumbent's supporters.

"We hear good news wherever we go in San Mateo county," say the Hickey supporters. "People seem well advised of Tom Hickey's good public record and are favorable to his reelection."

"The program of better hospitalization for the indigent sick in San Mateo county is uppermost in my mind," Hickey declares. "San Mateo county in its growth during the war years and in the postwar era has of course inherited many social problems. In these I am most interested.

"The record of my service as a supervisor has been one that shows me to be interested in the problems of the under-privileged. And yet I am mindful of the fact that the taxpayers pay the bill for those who cannot pay their own way but are dependent on public care.

"And therein lies a problem. How to care for public charges and yet reduce the bill for the taxpayer?

:"As the people's representative on the board of supervisors that has been my problem since the record will show that during my term as a supervisor I fathered the move to establish a community hospital."

DEFECTIVE DRIVERS

Defective driving rather than defective cars caused most of last year's traffic accidents, points out the California State Automobile Association, which calls attention to the fact that more than 90 per cent of all automobile accidents last year involved cars with no apparent mechanical defects.

Senator Parkman Submits Record As Platform

Democrats and Republicans were working shoulder to shoulder to reelect State Senator Harry L. Parkman, Twenty-first District, San Mateo county, in the June 1st Primary election.

They were spurred on by revelations contained in a labor newspaper that a last minute letter-writing attack was to be made upon Senator Parkman's record as a legislative candidate representative of San Mateo county.

When informed that he was to be the victim of a last minue letter-writing campaign smearing his good record, Senator Parkman said:

"I have confidence in the intelligence and the fairness of the San Mateo voting public. I know the voters will not fail for any last minue letter - writing attack against me by pressure groups.

"My record as state senator, and before that as an assemblyman, shows that I have fought for and sponsored every bill and bit of legislation which was beneficial to this county.

"My legislative record shows that I have fought for State allocations to better our school system; worked for better highways in our county; helped to divert State funds to this county for worthy projects."

Alvin S. Hatch Submits Experience To The Voters

An active campaigner, Supervisor Alvin S. Hatch, who seeks reelection to the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors in the June 1st, Primary election, is making a whirlwind personal campaign throughout the county.

"I am trying to meet as many of my constituants as possible," says Supervisor Hatch, who is chairman of the county supervisorial board.

"It is impossible to meet personally every voter in this county, so through my campaign literature, the press and through my active supporters, I send this message:

"As a member of the San Mateo county voard of supervisors and as chairman of that body I have come to know what the future holds for our county and it is a bright future — provided, of course, the course of county government is kept in progressive and capable hands.

"We have the problems of better transportation, housing for increasing population, necessity of increased recreational facilities for our children, common sense spending of public tax moneys for new county projects facing us.

"As chairman of your board of supervisors I am in the midst of such problems with plans for meeting all of them. I sincerely hope the voters of San Mateo county will honor me with reelection and let me finish a job I have started."

SMOKE SIGNALS

This is the last opportunity I will have to remind you of the aquacade to be held on May 26, 27 and 28, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights, in the Jefferson pool. There will be two performances nightly; the first will commence at 7:30 and the second at 9:30. Admission is $1 per person.

Approximately 75 students will take part in "Braziliana," which has been under rehearsal for the past two months. This water pageant contains a professional quality, which is due to the lavish costumes and settings under the direction of Roy DeVincenzi. A great deal of credit is due Mrs. Jeanne Diederichsen, Mrs. Elaine Parkhurst, Miss Juanita Young, Miss Anita Lehigh, Roy DeVincenzi, and all those students who are in any way connected with the aquacade.

On Wednesday, May 26, a special matinee of the aquacade will be given for the students, with an admission of 50c.

After school on Wednesday, May 19, Mrs. Diederichsen held a meeting in the gym of all students connected with the aquacade to make the final arrangements.

On Saturday, May 22, many of the graduating high seniors who intend to enter San Mateo Junior College will be taking their entrance examinations.

With the end of the school year not very far off, the graduating seniors are finding themselves in a labyrinth of activities. The theme of the senior ball has definitely been set as Blue Champagne, and final decoration schemes are being discussed, and work is being assigned to various senior committees. The senior Jinx Committee has likewise been very active; several meetings have been held recently and the seniors have made their final arrangements for the Jinx to be held on Tuesday, May 25.

The scripts for the senior Jinx have to be in within a few days, so many of the students have been getting together in groups, working after school, or meeting at various homes.

The senior picnic is also an important activity that is coming up. This morning, before school, the seniors held a meeting to determine when and where the senior picnic would be held.

Old-Fashioned Jelly Roll

By Frances Lee Barton

THERE are certain dishes that always appeal to the young fry, and often bring a nostalgic gleam to dad's or mother's eye. They're the cakes "just like the ones mother used to make." Such a dessert is Jelly Roll, the old - fashioned kind that's home-made and simple, with your favorite jelly oozing out between the folds. Of course it's even better if the jelly is home-made too! So for old times' sake, let's make a Jelly Roll! It's sure to set you up as an extra good cook.

Old-Fashioned Jelly Roll

¾ cup sifted cake flour; ¾ teaspoon double-acting baking powder; ¼ teaspoon salt; 4 eggs (at room temperature); ¾ cup sugar; 1 teaspoon vanilla; 1 cup tart red jelly.

Sift flour once and measure. Combine baking powder, salt, and eggs in bowl. Beat with rotary egg beater, adding sugar gradually until mixture becomes thick and light-colored. Fold in flour and vanilla. Turn into 15 x 10-inch pan which has been greased, lined with paper and greased again. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) 13 minutes. Turn out on cloth, remove paper, and quickly cut off crisp edges. Roll cake, rolling cloth up in cake. Let cool about 10 minutes. Unroll, spread cake with jelly, and roll again. Sprinkle with powdered sugar. Wrap in cloth and cool on rack.

Keep Potatoes Cool

Keep potatoes cool but not cold—at temperatures between 40 degrees and 60 degrees. Do not let them freeze.

"Vagabond King" Wins Acclaim On Opening Night

By Dave Hansen

It's a hit!

More than living up to expectations, the San Francisco City College production of The Vagabond King ended its opening night tonight on a high note of wild applause.

With Daly City's Regina Warchot featured in a prominent role, that of Lady Mary, Rudolf Friml's operetta was termed a great success by the more conservative onlookers.

Other, more enthusiastic comments were issuing from a receptive, standing-room-only audience long before the evening's program ended.

It was "Faculty Night" at the West Campus auditorium, Ocean and Phelan avenues, and even the more staid of the faculty members were more than generous with their applause.

The general public, in addition to persons connected with the college, responded with favorable 'bravos,' liberally sprinkled with effervescent adjectives.

Vagabond King's run will continue at a 2 p.m. matinee tomorrow, Friday. The next showing will take place at 8 p.m. the same night, and the engagement will terminate with a final performance on Saturday night.

City College's veteran community of Hurley Village stands to benefit from these performances. A 50 per cent cut of the proceeds are slated to go to the purchase of playground equipment for the more than 75 children living at the village.

Henry W. Edmonds Cites Protection Of Taxpayers

"He watches the taxpayers' interests!"

Throughout San Mateo county supporters of Supervisor Henry W. Edmonds, candidate for reelection to the board of supervisors, use that slogan as they canvass the peninsula for votes for the incumbent supervisor.

"Edmonds," say his supporters, "doesn't care whose toes he treads on so long as he can be assured that the taxpayer is going to get an even break for his tax dollar."

The incumbent supervisor, himself, is not a politically-minded politician, his supporters say, therefore he is not given to making loud political statements.

But Supervisor Edmonds has this to say:

"So long as I have been supervisor I have tried to the best of my ability to practice a course of thrift in county expenditures which, after all, means this: a saving to the taxpayers.

You can be assured that I favor progressive county government with expenditures for county expansion wherever such expenditures are necessary. But I have something in common with the average taxpayer — I, too, pay a tax bill and I mean to keep our expenditures and taxes lower if I can do so with reason."

Supervisor Edmonds is a veteran of World Wars I and II and has many military decorations for his services to his country although he is reluctant to talk about his service record.

Gone With The Wind Due At Crest Sun.

Of thirty huge sets created from three thousand sketches for "Gone With the Wind," the never-to-be-forgotten motion picture starting Sunday on the Crest screen as an M-G-M masterpiece release, the most pretentious was that of the war-stormed city of Atlanta, where munitions warehouses were burned by retreating soldiers.

The spectacular backgrounds of Atlanta in 1864 were reproduced on twenty acres. Warehouses, cotton gins, lumber yards and a Confederate arsenal arose from a pattern of steel engravings and Civil War photographs. A train of wooden box cars was spotted on the warehouse tracks. The call went out for 1,200 extras and that night a crowd estimated by Los Angeles police at 10,000 gathered in the Baldwin Hills, south of the movie set.

A special effects expert took over and the group of thirty-six buildings, most of them three stories in height, was piped with a battery of spray nozzles, concealed in the doomed structures. A centrifugal pump connected on three 5000-gallon tanks served the mixture of gasoline and distillate.

With the pressing of a button, which started the electrical ignition, the pump responded with tremendous pressure through the atomizing "fog nozzle" and flames sprang up in a dozen places to a height of two hundred feet. And thus was one of the most electrifying sequences of "Gone With the Wind" filmed.

Elizabeth Reiter

Funeral services were held Wednesday for Elizabeth Reiter, 376 Hillside boulevard, who died at her home last Sunday after a lengthy illness.

The deceased, a native of Hungary, was a member of the Cooks Union, Local 44.

Only survivor was her daughter, Halko Ference, of Irsa, Hungary. Funeral services were held from the chapel of Gantner-Felder, Kenny Mortuary, followed by inurnment at Cypress Lawn.

James Watso, Jeff Junior, Is Marine Reserve

By Dave Hansen

In this, the third of a series of interviews with local members of the 12th Infantry Battalion, USMCR, we meet James Watso.

Private First Class Watso has been a rifleman in the First Platoon, A Company, 12th Battalion, for one year. In that time he has done four weeks' active duty, in addition to the one night per week on Treasure Island.

Watso did two weeks' guard duty on the island last summer. The blonde, blue-eyed Jefferson Union High School junior attended summer camp with the battalion last summer at Camp Pendleton.

The 18-year-old native of San Francisco plans to go on in school, to major in architectural engineering. He is a member of the Jefferson swimming team; specializes in the 100-yard breast stroke. He is a footballer of sorts; plays left half on the high school team.

He was a member of the firing squad on detail for the Honda Knot and her passengers, deceased.

"I plan to go to Pendleton again this July," Watso said when interviewed. "The 12th Battalion is a good outfit, and I am looking forward to making the amphibious landing with them."

(The battalion will train this summer from July 3 to 17. Included are three days on the rifle range, several days aboard a Navy Transport, an amphibious landing, demonstrations by 1st Marine Division troops, and return to San Francisco by sea.)

Watso's brother, Jack Watso, is a "field music," currently doing duty with a Pearl Harbor military police battalion. He is due to be discharged in June of this year, with a good record firing in the Pacific rifle matches at Guam, Palilieu, Shanghai, and Honolulu.

Orange For Flavor

By Frances Lee Barton

LIGHT and fluffy, and flavored with orange, here's a dessert to appeal to the most delicate appetite.

Orange Cream Pudding is easy to make, too. Just a combination of prepared Vanilla Pudding with the rind and juice of an orange — what could be simpler to do or prettier to look at, when it's symmetrically decorated with fresh orange slices?

Orange Cream Pudding

1 package prepared vanilla pudding; 2 cups milk; 1 orange.

Prepare pudding as directed on package. Grate about ¾ teaspoon orange rind. Then peel and section orange; squeeze juice from membrane remaining from sectioning. Add juice and rind to prepared pudding. Chill. Cut orange sections in half and arrange on top of pudding before serving. Makes 4 or 5 servings.

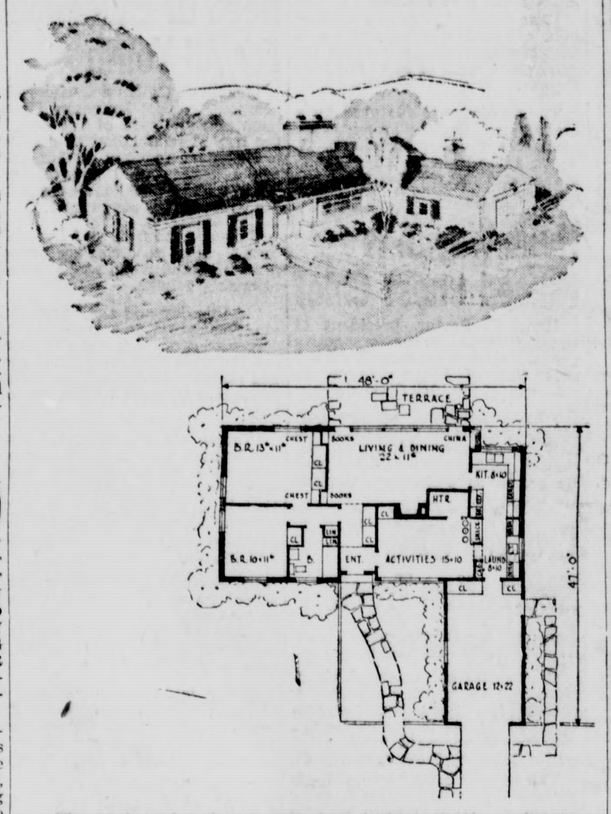
For Active Family



The much-used activities room is a feature of this small home. Social living, children's activities, sewing, guest sleeping, study, etc., will find a place in this area. It also works well with the kitchen and laundry to provide a very flexible living arrangement. The small entrance hall eliminates cross-room traffic. Twelve built-in storage wall units are noteworthy. The heater room contains the small boiler that supplies radiant floor heating. The house comprises 1160 square feet, excluding garage.

Dwelling shown above is a photograph of a scale model of a "cut-out" home which can be obtained from House Beautiful Magazine for $2.00. The model is easily assembled, and gives the prospective home builder an actual model of the home he plans to build, complete with "cut-out" furniture.

By studying the scale model, the prospective builder is enabled to determine what changes he deems necessary before the house is actually built, thereby saving needless expense.

Blueprints and specifiactions of the dwelling shown above can be obtained for $5 per set by writing House Beautiful Magazine, 572 Madison Avenue, New York City 22, New York.

"If elected to the Jefferson high school board of trustees I shall strive to the best of my ability to support all matters which will make our school system second to none in the state."

Fazzio, Freeman Write From Tours In Texas, Wash.

Daly City's contributions to the big leagues are faring well in their farm club training, according to letters received this week by friends of Fred Fazzio and Bill Freeman.

Fazzio, writing from Pampa, Texas, made sports page headlines in the Lubbock Morning Advance when his Brooklyn team from Abilene defeated the Lubbock Hubbers on their own grounds. Fred, pitching for Abilene, set the Hubbers down on six scattered hits to earn a 7-2 victory for his third win.

Fazzio will be joined this week by Lefty (Wade) Hazel, who left Monday to play with the Abilene junior-Dodgers.

Bill Freeman, playing with the Seals' farm club at Tacoma in the Washington circuit, writes that he just missed scoring a 3-0 record last Sunday against Bremerton. Bill says he was lifted for a pinch-hitter in the eighth and the team lost on an error in the last of the ninth. His record remains at 2-0, but should be raised this week in games with Vancouver and Bremerton.

Agabashian Wins The Main Event Friday At Bayshore

By Tom Tromborg

Driving like the champion that he is, the imposing and auspicious Freddie Agabashian won the 25-lap main event at Bayshore Stadium Friday night, in one of the finest exhibitions of midget automobile racing ever seen in northern California.

Proving his worth as the B.C.R.A. champion for two successive years, the "V-8" king came from behind to weave and slide his way through a field of twelve into the lead, set the pace, and gain one of the finest triumphs in his outstanding racing career.

Agabashian, driving the sleek Bignotti 154, started on the outside in the last row in the main. Within two laps he had moved up to eighth, and from here on in it was plainly apparent that he would move up for contention of the first two positions. Crossing up with mechanical precision in the turns he was third by the 14th lap, and pressing Stevenson in 39 at a hard pace for second, which the southerner could not hold. Aggie proved his agressiveness and audacity by taking Stevenson in the left turn, and Number 5 for the lead, which he never relinquished.

Adding to his laurels as a true champion, Aggie turned in for the night the fastest qualifying time—16:40 — besides winning the trophy dash from 131, a flashy Drake from Oakland.

Woody Brown of Oakland was second in the main, while Norm Holtkamp finished third, after a two-car spin on the 23rd lap between Cars 39 and 5.

Erratic Jerry Piper, the smiling mayor of Walnut Creek, lead footed his low-wheeled Curtis job to a 15 lap semi main win over the trailing V-8s of Ed Bennent and Ed Normi, after getting a fast start from the outside pool position. Piper was never seriously contested for the lead position, but the race was nonetheless thrilling to the edgy crowd, due to the spectacular and numerous spins that seemed to feature this race.

Aggie, who took a ninth in the Indianapolis classic last year, will be a favorite this year to move up in the position ladder come the checkered flag at the 500-mile mark.

Another local lad is making his bid for midget fame and fortune by competing in the necessary training races, which will in time give him the experience as a starter. He is Bussy Tebeau, of 186 West Moltke street, Daly City. Long time a fan of midget racing, Buss, as he is called in the racing pits, has now completed three training races and by the season's end will be ready for the green flag in regular racing competitions.

Midget racing, under the sanction of the Bay Cities Racing Association, has this year taken a decided step in moving the midgets into national sports prominence. Fast and spectacular drivers and cars from southern California have now joined this association, giving to the fans of the Bay Area faster races and closer competition. The rivalry between north and south is intense, with a strong competition between both groups, but the racing is complimentary to the best ideals of American sportsmanship.

A penstock is a giant pipe that squirts a stream of water so fast you literally couldn't cut it with an axe. It's the source of power for the powerhouse... and this one, being built for three big new generators on the Mokelumne River, will soon help turn out 133,000 new electrical horsepower for Northern California. It's 10 feet in diameter at the top, 7½ feet at the bottom, 3,350 feet long—scheduled for completion this month.

Through six high-velocity nozzles like this, the Electra penstock will deliver a mighty punch at a speed of 180 miles an hour. To get a better idea of the terrific pressure developed, take a look at the giant specially processed steel water wheels it spins.

Sixteen tons each, these 11 foot water wheels will soon be whirling at a rate of 225 revolutions per minute... making new generators hum... sending enough new power onto our lines to serve Berkeley, Richmond and Emeryville.

Work never stops on our power-building program

New Telephone Prefixes Now Listed In Book

Six new central office names appear in the introductory pages of the new San Francisco telephone directory dated May, 1948, distribution of which was completed recently.

They are SKyline 2, VAlencia 6, and ATwater 8, which have gone into service in recent weeks; and YUkon 2, LOmbard 4 and PRospect 6, to be introduced later on during the life of the current directory.

With these additions, the number of central offices serving San Francisco increases from 34 to 40.

In calling attention to the new names, Lyle M. Brown, San Francisco division manager of the telephone company, cautioned subscribers to use the correct office numeral, as listed in the number being called. He said, for example, that SKyline 2-1999 is an entirely different party from SKyline 1-1999.

Brown said initial distribution of the new telephone directory totaled 386,000 copies. It contains 263,000 alphabetical listings, an increase of 14,796 over the previous issue of last August.

Joe E. Brown At Geary Theater Two More Weeks

California theatergoers who have not seen Joe E. Brown in the role of Elwood P. Dowd in "Harvey" at the Geary Theater in San Francisco, have but two more weeks in which to enjoy the stage and screen star's hilarity with his invisible white rabbit pal on the Geary stage. For Joe E. Brown will play this role for the last time Friday night, June 4.

Before leaving the company, Mr. Brown will also give a Sunday night performance on May 30. This will be the only Sunday showing during the local engagement, and has been arranged because of the many requests from out of town theatergoers unable to attend week-day evening shows.

On Saturday night, June 5 Brock Pemberton, producer of this Pulitzer Prize comedy by Mary Chase, will step into the role himself for one performance, a benefit for Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc. Mr. Pemberton has been seen previously as the character he helped make famous at a benefit performance on Broadway for one week at the Barter Theater in Virginia, and at his alma mater, the University of Kansas.

Marion Lorne, featured comedienne, and other members of the company who have been working for the past three seasons for Mr. Pemberton, the producer, will support Mr. Pemberton the actor in their respective roles for the June 5 performance.

U. C. Expedition Finds New Fossil Apes

New details of the discovery of fossil remains of apes which lived 20 million years ago in Turkana Province, west of Lake Rudolph, Northern Kenya Colony, have been reported to the Berkeley campus by Wendell Phillips, leader of the Northern party of the University of California African Expedition.

The paleontological party responsible for this discovery is operating under the personal direction of Dr. Basil Cooke, the expedition's geologist and one of South Africa's leading scientists.

Nearly three hunderd fossil bones and teeth were found in the red mudstones of the Losidok range west of Lake Rudolph before the first fragment of an ape came to light.

The fossils represent two entirely different types of ape, one a small species about the size of a monkey and the other a big species about as large as a chimpanzee.

The discovery of fossil apes for the first time in Turkana greatly extends their known range as they were formerly known only from a very small area in the Kavirondo Gulf region of Lake Victoria.

Fossils found with the apes include crocodiles and turtles, one of the turtles being an enormous creature over four feet wide and six or seven feet long; and bones and teeth of ancient elephant and rhinoceros species.

FEDERAL "DUCK STAMPS"

California hunters purchased 154,652 Federal migratory-bird hunting stamps for last season, according to the National Automobile Club. Only one state, Minnesota, exceeded California, with 175,151 stamps.

WASHOE

Washoe was the largest town in Nevada when the state was admitted to the Union, reports National Automobile Club. All that remains now of this once flourishing town is a few old crumbling buildings.

"Safeway guarantees to sell every food at the bottom price in this neighborhood"

This is SAFEWAY'S guarantee!
We guarantee you the bottom price in your shopping district—grade for grade and quality for quality—on every food store item

We mean this on every item...every day

To avoid wasting time, energy and gasoline in shopping around, our promise of the bottom price goes—for every food store item*—not just one or two "specials" for each and every day you shop*—not just for "special" days
It is Safeway's policy to always sell food at the lowest price. And to be sure of that, it is also Safeway's policy to meet any and every low food price in your neighborhood.

Here's how you can help us keep food prices low:

OUR METHOD of food distribution regularly assures lowest food prices at Safeway. But some day we may miss some "special." We want to give you the lowest prices on "specials" too.

Will you do this: If you see an item advertised in your neighborhood at a price lower than ours, bring a copy of the ad to your Safeway.

We will adjust our price on any item of like grade and quality to meet any competitive price in the trading area of any Safeway store.

Remember, food prices must be low at Safeway. We bring foods in by direct routes, handle them efficiently, cut unnecessary costs. You help keep food distribution costs low by waiting on yourself, paying cash and carrying your purchases home.

By trading at Safeway you earn and are entitled to the lowest food prices.

The manager of your SAFEWAY

LANDINGS -- THEN AND LATER

The Navy's role in the assaults of American forces on the shores and beaches of enemy territory has been indispensable throughout its history, although the invasion methods have changed radically with each conflict. Above photo of an old print depicts the landing of American forces under General Scott at Vera Cruz in 1847 — amphibious operation, Mexican War style. Below is a scene from World War II, taken nearly a century later, as Marines stormed the black beach of Iwo Jima beneath scowling Mt. Suribachi in the landing craft of a scientific age. (Official Navy Photograph)

WATCH TIRE INFLATION

Never drive with tires that are improperly inflated, advises National Automobile Club. To drive under-inflated tires causes rapid wear, cuts, punctures, blow-outs, hard steering, and an excessive use of gasoline. Over - inflation causes hard riding and disrupts, strains, and fatigues the tire carcass.

OUT OF CONTROL

Many a traffic accident has been ascribed to the car going out of control when actually it was the driver who was out of control, points out the California State Automobile Association, urging motorists to keep alert, stay sober, and be prepared for an emergency in traffic.

THE OPEN DOOR

The motorist who opens the car door on the left into a traffic lane may find that he has opened the door to the emergency hospital, says the California State Automobile Association.

Notes From San Mateo Jaysee

With the title already cinched, San Mateo Junior College recently defeated two powerful rivals: San Francisco 3-2 and 12-1, and Vallejo jaysee 10-2 and 8-2. Coach Herb Hudson's players have not lost a league game to date.

A four-man track group from jaysee took 10¼ points at the Fresno Relays. Bill Cullen took a first in the discus and a second in the javelin. Eddie Mack got a fifth place in the broadjump and Bill King tied for third place in the polevault.

Meanwhile the tennis team has its sights aimed at the Nationals in Lexington, Missouri, and the drive to raise money to send the team is still making progress.

Saturday the faculty members of the three campuses held a picnic at the Coyote Point campus, and this Friday afternoon the graduating class will have a picnic at Adobe Creek Lodge.

The cannery at the college is now taking reservations for canning and is open to the public as demand warrants a pack. Later, as the real fruit season opens, the cannery will run steadily.

Monday evening, May 24, Community Hall invites the public to hear a lecture and see pictures on "Conditions in Germany." Dr. Robert Hanna of the Stanford campus is the speaker. The meeting starts at 7:30 p.m. in the college auditorium.

DRIVING IN FOG

Fast driving in fog is always dangerous, and that includes the mental fog of the driver who is excessively fatigued, says the California State Automobile Association.

Plan Pilgrimage To St. Joseph's Monastery

On Monday, May 31, hundreds of people will journey to St. Joseph's Monastery of Poor Clares, Capitola, Santa Cruz county, on the Annual Decoration Day Pilgrimage to the Chapel of Perpetual Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

The Poor Clares, the Second Order of St. Francis, founded in the year 1212, is a contemplative order of Nuns who live a life of prayer and penance.

Refreshments will be served. Admission price is 50 cents.

Mrs. Honora Cronin is chairman of the committee in charge.

RAILROAD CROSSINGS

"Don't argue with a train railroad crossing," admon Bert Stewart jr., field secretar National Automobile Club. "A mobiles seldom win that race death."

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS

CROCKER

Under Coach Bob Seiler's training, Crocker students won another trophy Saturday — the track meet trophy. This is the second trophy this term that Coach Seiler's athletes have won. The first won by these students was the Jefferson Elementary School Basketball trophy, which the student body calls "Oscar." When the track meet trophy arrives the students will probably christen him "Oscar, jr."

Coach Seiler's men walked away with 151 points; the nearest to this was Perpetual Help's score of 92 points. Woodrow came in third place with 60 points and Jefferson received 40. Good organization, sportsmanship, and interest on the part of Coach Seiler has been a continual impetus and incentive to the Crocker students this term. Congratulations, Bob Seiler and Crocker athletes.

Crocker students again won county honors for their school. Kenneth Pennington, H8, won second prize in the county with his essay on "Our Great American Heritage — Liberty," and Carolyn Saumer, L6, won second prize for her essay, "The American Flag and What It Means to Me." Both these students have received first prizes for their essays in the Daly City unit of the American Legion Auxiliary. Congratulations, Kenneth and Carolyn!

The students of L5 and H5 grades were shown two stillfilms on May 10, in connection with their social studies, "Rise of the West" and "The Westward Movement."

Room 3 is proud of its two contest winners, Carolyn Saumer, who was awarded first prize, and Robert Yonan, second prize. These two students won prizes in the American Legion contest.

Marcia Golden, winner of the Lincoln essay contest, and Joy Logan and Norma Khinoo, who received honorable mention in the recent American Legion contest, were presented to the P.T.A. officers and guests at their luncheon on Tuesday.

Winners in the recent Americanism Essay and Poppy Poster contests were introduced by Harold Bradford at the P.T.A. luncheon held in Crocker School. The H7 students who were honored were Edward Haussler, Peggy Lee, David Martinez, and Andrew Uranich.

JEFFERSON

"How a Bill Becomes a Law" was the title of the motion picture shown to eighth graders this week. It showed how laws, as created by our legislative body, administered by our executive body and applied by our judicial body, are a part of each citizen's daily life. Each step was clearly defined, illustrated and visualized. The different ways of creating new laws were demonstrated. The picture was shown in connection with the study of United States government by the class.

Spring in all its grandeur has made its debut in the art classes of the seventh and eighth grades of Jefferson School. Large floral reproductions of spring flowers were made by these students. Pansies, showing a soft, velvety texture and exquisite blend of colors have a place of honor in the seventh grade. Eighth graders have their excellent exhibit of tulips, roses and daffodils in the main hall.

During a music appreciation period, students of the fifth grade enjoyed the following selections by their classmates:

Tschaikowsky's "Concerto" and Brahm's "Waltz," Ronald Stanghellini; "Indian Dance in the Firelight," Judy Graziani; "Holland Festival" and "Little Lady," Eileen De Bernardi; "Dreamy Time," Linda Caravano; "Puddles," Gwen Raye Anthony.

Mussel Quarantine Issued By County Health Department

Don't take chances! Don't eat mussels between May 1 and October 31.

That is the warning issued to all patrons at California's coastside beaches this year, in a quarantine notice posted by the state board of public health.

Posters distributed throughout San Mateo county by the county's Department of Public Health and Welfare carry this message:

"A mussel quarantine order has been established by the California State Department of Public Health which is now effective in San Mateo County. Violators of this order will be apprehended and prosecuted under the law."

"A quarantine is hereby established on all mussels from the ocean shore of California extending from the California-Oregon boundary south to the California-Mexican boundary, including the Bay of San Francisco, prohibiting the taking, sale or offering for sale, of mussels in or from this designated area, except that permission is granted to take mussels for use as fish bait, provided such mussels shall be rendered unfit for food purposes by processing with salt and provided further that the containers in which these processed mussels are placed, shall be adequately labeled in bold-faced Gothic type letters at least one-half inch in height."

The posters, in addition to the mussel quarantine, also are designed to warn the public that clams should be cleaned and washed thoroughly before cooking and that all dark parts should be discarded because the poison, when present during May to October, would be concentrated in the dark parts.

VACATION DRIVING

"To drive free from accidents and to enjoy your vacation more, don't drive too fast or too far on any one day," cautions Bert Stewart jr., field secretary for National Automobile Club. "A planned trip will prove more restful and pleasant."

RAINBOW TROUT TAKEN

Beautiful catches of rainbow trout have been taken recently from the North Fork of the Feather River near Chester in Plumas county, reports National Automobile Club. Fishing in Lake Almanor in this same area has been only fair.

Congressman Jack Anderson believes in preparedness! Before World War II he advocated fortification of Guam and other Pacific outposts. He also had the foresight to say, "Stop sending scrap iron to Japan."

Today, he favors strengthening of Alaska defenses and a trained army, navy and air force of sufficient size to halt aggression.

Those opposing Congressman Anderson have publicly expressed their hopes of "getting along" with aggressor nations. Have they already forgotten how futile it was to scrap our battleships? And is Munich and appeasement no longer a vivid memory?

Let's not repeat past mistakes. We must be a strong nation. And we WILL be strong as long as Jack Anderson's voice is heard in Congress.

Let's Keep
JACK ANDERSON
